

I'll Race You to the Tomb

Guitar and Bass Chords:

Intro with cello: D DM7 D DM7

D DM7 D7 G Gm Dsus D DM7
Two days of desperation, The darkest days that they had ever known; The sun would not shine for them.
D DM7 D7 G Gm Dsus D DM7
There in their darkened chamber A ray of light rode in upon these words: Our Savior is risen.
A2 G2 F#m G2
And their minds were filled with questions, Their hearts with new found hope.

D Em7 D/F# G2 D Asus A
On your mark, get set, let's go, I'll race you to the tomb, I'll race you to the tomb.
D Em7 D/F# G2 D Asus A
On your mark, get set, let's go, I'll race you to the tomb, I'll race you to the tomb.

Cello solo: D DM7 D7 G Gm Dsus D DM9 Dsus D DM9
D DM7 D7 G Gm Dsus D DM9 Dsus D DM9

D DM7 D7 G Gm Dsus D DM7
Imagine being one of them, When all your hopes were nailed upon a tree: The death of a thousand dreams.
D DM7 D7 G Gm
And deafened by your sadness You see their lips move, But you hardly hear their meaning:
Dsus D DM9
There's reason to hope again.
A2 G2 F#m G2
And your mind were filled with questions, Your heart with new found hope.

D Em7 D/F# G2 D Asus A
On your mark, get set, let's go, I'll race you to the tomb, I'll race you to the tomb.
D Em7 D/F# G2 D Asus A
On your mark, get set, let's go, I'll race you to the tomb, I'll race you to the tomb.
A2 G2 F#m G GM7 G GM7
So put an end to all of your questions, 'Cause there's hope enough for you
D DM7 D7 DM7 D DM7 D7 DM7
There at the empty tomb. I'll race you to the tomb.
D DM7 D7 G
I'll race you to the tomb
